Ridiculous Presumption. "What had you been eating?"

"Corn beef and cabbage, doctor. I think I have a touch of ptomaine poisoning."

"Nonsense! Ptomaine poisoning goes with imported caviar and canned lobster. What you have is a case of stomach ache."—Louisville Courier.

NOW IT IS THE EMPIRE MIDDY.

A blouse that may be changed into several different models by the manipulation of its trimmings or rearrangement of the waist-line. As an Empire middy it is unusually effective.

This new version of the middy blouse will find many advocates, because it is thoroughly original, while meeting the demands of a smart evening garment. The design can be as quickly converted into a Russian blouse by dropping the waist-line, or into a semi-dressy waist outside the belt. It has an adjustable waist, for which 1/2 yard of 12-inch all-over lace is required. In medium size the dress requires 6 1/2 yards 26-inch material.

In making first tuck the side front of the waist as creased and stitch near the edge of the fold, about 1/4 inch. Turn under front edge on slot perforations, lap on front to small "o" perforations, notches even; stitch in tuck effect. Close under-arm and shoulder seams as notched. Gather lower edge of front between double "T" perforations; center-front indicated by large "o" perforations. Stitch tape the length of stay under gathers, small "o" perforation at center-front. Gather side front and back on small "o" perforations. Face flare collar and sew to neck edge as notched.

Close sleeve seam, turn under lower edge and gather puff on small "o" perforations; sew into armhole with as few gathers as possible.

Close center-back of skirt seams, leaving seam of upper section free above large "o" perforation for opening. Turn under lower edge of upper section on slot perforations. Gather upper edge of both sections between double "T" perforations and join sections, notches and edges underneath even. Turn under lower edge of lower section 4 1/2 inches for hem. Adjust stay underneath skirt, centers and single small "o" perforations at upper edges even; stitch upper edges together. Adjust underneath waist.

The embroidery is done in solid satin stitches in two shades of pink.

A Showy Man. "Ma," said little Tommy Slathers, "I wish my pa amounted to something in the world."

"Why, Tommy, your father is a millionaire!"

"That ain't nothing, ma. Henry Fennell's pa is a bandmaster and leads all the parades."—Birmingham Age-Herald.

NEW GIPSY MOTH QUARANTINE

Xmas Trees and Xmas Greens May Now Be Shipped After Inspection.

New regulations for the quarantine on account of the gipsy moth and the brown-tail moth in New England became effective July 1, and copies of the new quarantine, known as No. 22, may now be obtained from the department of agriculture. The new regulations extend somewhat the territory quarantined for the other hand, in the territory quarantined for the brown-tail moth. On the other hand, in the territory quarantined for gipsy moth Christmas trees and Christmas greens may now be shipped out after they have been inspected by department agents and found free from the eggs of this insect. Heretofore movement of these products in interstate commerce was not allowed under any circumstances from the infested area. Other provisions of the quarantine remain in general much the same.

Stone and quarry products must be inspected for egg clusters as well as such forest products as logs, poles, etc.
